MUR # 5738

Dear Sir,

Discovered this advertisement (copy enclosed) in the San Antonio Express-News newspaper, on Saturday 8 April 2006 (San Antonio, Texas).

Complaint against:

- 1) Charles Gonzalez, incumbent up for re-election to Congress
- 2) The West San Antonio Chamber of Commerce
- 3) Tom Frost III, director of Frost Bank; largest local bank in San Antonio (and on many other "boards" in San Antonio)
- 4) Hearst (NYC) owner of subsidiary San Antonio Express-News newspaper
- 5) Holiday Inn Riverwalk

Complaint:

- 1) Violation of Federal Campaign laws/regs and Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act.
- 2) NO mention that $5000 or other amount will go toward Gonzalez's re-election campaign or for boosting Gonzalez's re-election campaign.
- 3) No campaign declarations nor naming of a campaign treasurer.
- 4) Corporate donations and/or support for a Federal campaign (same as Tom DeLay) (apparent federal criminal violation – demand federal criminal prosecution).

and closed more than five weeks. "The worst that can happen to us is that we have to repeat a semester."

A week ago, President Jacques Chirac, trying to end the growing crisis, ordered the contested law modified.

On Friday, lawmakers ended three days of talks with unions and students, saying a bill based on a "synthesis" of the talks would be presented. No details were given.

Protesters have demanded the law be repealed by April 15, "said when Parliament recesses for
